BOSTON (FOX 25/CBS 58) - Police are investigating after a 6-year-old girl was struck by a bullet on Edgartown-Vineyard Haven Road in Waltham on Thursday. According to police, the child was with her family at a residence in the area of Edgartown-Vineyard Haven Road when she heard what she thought were fireworks. When she went outside, she found a hole in the front door. Police believe the bullet went through the door and hit the child. She was taken to a nearby hospital with serious but non-life-threatening injuries. No one was home at the time. There are no current leads in the case, but police said they hope to have more answers once the investigation is complete. "Any and every step of the investigation needs to be reviewed and that includes any contact or interaction with the victim and her family
